COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF PHILADELPHIA Proceedings of the Meeting of the Board of Trustees Thursday, April 4, 2019 – 3:00 p.m.

- Present: Mr. White, presiding; Mr. Bergheiser, Ms. Biemiller, Mr. Clancy, Mr. Epps, Ms. Hernández Vélez, Mr. Herzog, Ms. Ireland, Ms. Jean-Baptiste, Mr. Martz, Representative Roebuck, Mr. Soileau, Dr. Generals, Mr. Eapen, Dr. Hirsch, Ms. DiGregorio, Ms. de Fries, and Ms. Zellers
- (1) Meeting Called to Order

Mr. White called the meeting to order.

(2) Acknowledgement of Men's and Women's Basketball Teams

Mr. White read Resolutions of Appreciation acknowledging the College's Men's and Women's Basketball teams and the coaching staff on their outstanding accomplishments this past year.

Members of the Board congratulated the teams and coaching staff on their achievement.

(3) Public Comment

There were no public comment requests.

(4) Executive Session

At this point in the meeting, the Board convened in Executive Session.

The Executive Session was devoted to a discussion of governance issues.

The Board reconvened in Public Session.

- (5) Report of the Business Affairs Committee
- (5a) Approval of Executive Committee Actions

Ms. Biemiller stated that the Business Affairs Committee and Executive Committees of the Board had met jointly on February 22 and March 13, 2019. She stated that staff addressed a number of concerns expressed by Trustees regarding the Career and Advanced Technology Center. Ms. Biemiller stated that the Committee wanted a better understanding of the programs costs and how they compared to the marketplace; the timeline on the funding and how the debt servicing would impact the College's budget; and understand the risks to the College if the various funding sources did not come through if the project could not be completed.

Ms. Biemiller stated that the Business Affairs Committee and the Executive Committee were satisfied with the information provided by staff and approved the following three items which were being recommended for approval by the Board of Trustees:

- Approval of the Schrader Group as architects for the Career and Advanced Technology Center in the amount of $2,100,000;
- Approval of the Board Resolution for Issuing Bonds for the Career and Advanced Technology Center in an amount not to exceed $35 million; and
- Appointment of PNC Financial Services as the Underwriter for the Career and Advanced Technology Center.

Ms. Biemiller moved, with Mr. Epps seconding, that the Board approve the actions of the Executive Committee. The motion carried unanimously.

(6) Report of the Student Outcomes Committee

Ms. Hernández Vélez reported that the Student Outcomes Committee had not met earlier in the day. She stated that items from the February 7, 2019 meeting of the Committee are listed for approval under the Consent Agenda.

(7) Report of the Audit Committee

Mr. White reported that the Audit Committee had met on March 26, 2019. He stated that the College received a clean bill of health from the auditors. Mr. White stated that no material weaknesses or significant deficiencies were found in our Audit findings.

After discussion, Mr. Herzog moved, with Ms. Ireland seconding, that the Board accept the 2017-18 Uniform Guidance Report. The motion carried unanimously.

(8) Consent Agenda

Mr. White requested Mr. Eapen to briefly discuss the following three items on the Consent Agenda: New Market Tax Credits (NMTC) Consultant for the Career and Advanced Technology Center; Contract for Construction Management for the Library and Learning Commons; and Resolution of Support for 2019-20 PDE Capital Applications.

Mr. Eapen stated that Mr. Noel Eisenstat, LLC, will be responsible to coordinate and supervise the legal and accounting process required for obtaining NMTC allocations and the solicitation and selection of a tax credit investor for the NMTCs. The consultant's fee will be 2% of the gross equity investment from the tax credit investor. With a $20 million NMTC from a CDE (Community Development Entities) or multiple CDEs, the fee will be approximately $140,000.

Mr. Eapen stated that College solicited proposals for the delivery of construction management services for the Library/Learning Commons renovation project which is a $16 million project including an estimated $14 million for construction. Mr. Eapen stated that three firms were interviewed and Johnson, Mirmiran and Thompson, Inc. (JMT) was selected at a cost of $529,625.

Mr. Eapen stated that the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) requires that all capital applications submitted during the annual capital application process include a Board Resolution of Support for the project. He stated that for the FY 2019-20 process, and subsequent cycles, PDE is requiring that previously submitted projects be submitted with new Resolutions.

After discussion, Mr. White requested Board approval of the following Consent Agenda:

- (a) Proceedings and Minutes of Decisions and Resolutions Meeting of February 7, 2019
- (b) Gifts and Grants
- (c) Academic Program Review: Fire Science AAS Degree
- (d) Academic Program Review: American Sign Language/ English Interpreting AAS Degree
- (e) New Market Tax Credits (NMTC) Consultant for the Career and Advanced Technology Center
- (f) Contract for Construction Management for the Library and Learning Commons Project
- (g) Ellucian Campus Receivables Collector
- (h) Resolution of Support for 2019-20 PDE Capital Applications
- (i) Approval of Destiny One

Ms. Hernández Vélez moved, with Mr. Martz seconding, that the Board approve the Consent Agenda. The motion carried unanimously.

(9) Report of the Chair

Mr. White stated that Board representation was needed at a number of year-end events. He asked members of the Board to indicate their preference of the events in which they wished to participate. Members of the Board indicated the following:

Mr. Steve Herzog will attend the Retirees Program & Reception on Thursday, April 25, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. in the Pavilion Klein Cube;

MEETING OF THE BUSINESS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES Community College of Philadelphia Wednesday, April 17, 2019 – 9:00 A.M.

Present: Mr. Jeremiah J. White, presiding; Mr. Harold Epps, Mr. Steve Herzog (via Zoom), Mr. Michael Soileau (via Zoom), Dr. Donald Generals, Mr. Jacob Eapen, Dr. Judith Gay, Ms. Kris Henk, Mr. Gim Lim, Mr. James P. Spiewak, Victoria Zellers, Esq. and Representing Tierney: Ms. Courtney Coolidge

AGENDA

PUBLIC SESSION

(1) Update on Marketing Initiatives (Information Item):

Ms. Kris Henk, Director of Marketing and Ms. Courtney Coolidge, Senior Vice President from Tierney provided a presentation updating the Committee on Marketing initiatives. The presentation is included as Attachment A. The Marketing & Communications calendar is included as Attachment B. Committee members had discussions with staff concerning marketing issues such as social media, efforts to reach corporations for customized training efforts, staffing levels of the College's Marketing Department and their interaction with other College departments.

Dr. Generals informed the Committee that candidates for the Vice President for Marketing and Communications position are scheduled for interviews. He would like to extend the contract with Tierney through September, 2019. This will cover the period until a new Vice President for Marketing and Communications is on board and allow for some overlap time between Tierney and the Vice President. It was recommended that the full Board receive the same marketing presentation at the next Board meeting; and that the Trustees receive the PowerPoint in advance of the Board meeting so they can review it.

(2) Extension of Marketing Contract (Action Item):

Discussion: Following the presentation, Mr. Eapen requested Committee approval to extend the College's contract with Tierney for ongoing support with implementation for a period from May 8, 2019 to October 7, 2019, not to exceed $25,000 per month and including $500 for incidentals for a total cost of $125,500. It was noted that the College may always cancel the contract at any time with or without cause on 30 days' notice.

Action: Mr. White moved and Mr. Epps seconded the motion that the Committee recommend to the full Board to approve the College's contract with Tierney for ongoing support with implementation for a period from May 8, 2019 to October 7, 2019, not to exceed $25,000 per month and including $500 for incidentals for a total cost of $125,500. The motion passed unanimously.

In response to questions, Dr. Generals responded that the Board of Trustees and the Foundation Board will participate in the final selection process for the new Vice President for Marketing and Communications.

(3) Next Meeting Date:

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Committee will be held on Wednesday, May 22nd at 9:00 A.M. in the Isadore A. Shrager Boardroom, M2-1. At that time, the 2019-2020 College budget will be presented to the Committee.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

An Executive Session followed the Public Session.

Objectives and Strategies

The Path Forward

The 2019 Marketing and Communications Plan provides a holistic look at strategies, fosters initiatives with purpose (results-driven, resonating with target audiences), and introduces processes and success measures to educate and showcase support among the College's key stakeholders.

Objectives

There are three primary objectives in 2019:

Strategies

The overarching strategy is to raise awareness of priority programs, spotlight student and alumni success, and change the perception of the College through powerful storytelling.

Narrative and Messaging

Proposed Narrative

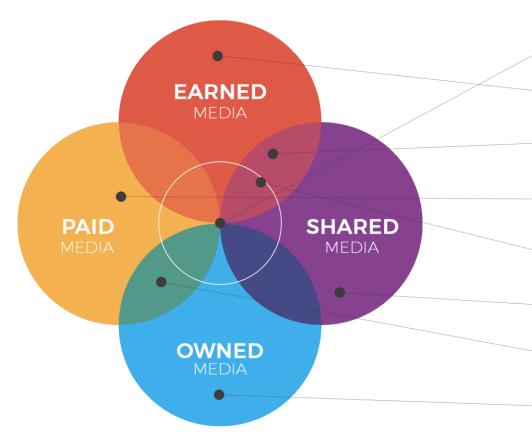

Community College of Philadelphia transforms lives. We welcome all students who enter without judgment and exit with opportunity. Our success stories are as diverse as our offerings as we provide relevant, innovative programs and courses directly connected to the real world, coupled with a student experience rooted in community and backed by personalized support. We are the city's college, preparing Philadelphia to thrive.

Hill self-starter would like city program for entrepreneurs expanded

Posted on February 22, 2019, updated on February 26, 2019 by Contributor

Jonathan Williams, owner of Chestnut Hill Cleaning Company.

by Peter Elliott

Philadelphia City Council's Committee on Commerce and Economic Development held a hearing on Tuesday, Feb. 19, to determine the funding of the Power U Your Business program. The program, which is provided by the Community College of Philadelphia, has helped hundreds of small businesses within the Philadelphia area by giving them the tools and knowledge to become successful business owners.

One such business is the Chestnut Hill Cleaning Company, created by Chestnut Hill native and entrepreneur Jonathan Williams, 22. The business offers a range of services, from carpet cleaning to snow shoveling, in Chestnut Hill and nearby neighborhoods. For Williams, the business started during his time at Central High School. On snow days, he and his first the second the neighborhood.

Story Bank

Create Community College of Philadelphia Story Bank to organize and evaluate content ideas.

Review and refresh quarterly with key stakeholders to ensure proper balance and cadence.

Leverage stories across channels as appropriate (i.e., pitch angles, social content, etc.)

Guardrails:

2-3 Alumni stories/quarter

1-2 Workforce development stories/quarter

Announce all new programing, etc.

Angle: Rigorous Small Business Program Puts Local Owners on Top Activation: 10KSB graduation (April)

Focus: Highlight 10KSB program and graduates stories including the specific strategies they plan to incorporate to drive their business forward (i.e., Michael HVAC company, Alijah Hispanic community counseling center).

Angle: Community Colleges Offer FREE Education to Small Businesses Activation: National Small Business Week (May)

Focus: Feature CCP small business success stories from Power Up. Small business owners can now take vacations due to 10KSB program success.

Angle: CCP Commencement

Focus: Leverage MaST Charter School students, alumni success like Mutha Knows for "Where Will You Go" campaign and Dwight Evans as keynote speaker during commencement time frame.

Angle: Pursue Your Passion: The Thrill of Changing Careers

Focus: Highlight CCP's various programs like accelerated nursing, culinary arts, auto tech, accelerated business, sound recording and music tech for adults looking to make a career change. Share a story from a current student highlighting his/her journey, speaking to the ease and success of the programs.

Additional Idea: Participate/moderate a panel at the PA Conference for Women

Angle: Community College Students Over-Index on Being Civically Active

Focus: CCP students are civically active in our community overindexing on voting in the last two presidential elections (81% of registered voters cast their ballot compared to 67% national average). Our students care about the city.

Angle: 3 Jobs You've Never Heard of & Why You Need To Focus: Highlight priority programs offered at CCP that lead to highly relevant jobs such as Biomedical Equipment Technician and Respiratory Care Technician, Ophthalmic Technician.

Angle: Dr. Generals: Transforming the City's College (Executive Positioning)

Focus: Elevate the president's visibility as an influencer in the city and what that means for the College and it's future/impact on Philadelphia.

Angle: The Youngest Generation Surprises with More Practical Approach to Education

Focus: Gen-Z are practical when it comes to College and careers, opting for colleges that offer programs more directly connected to careers. Nod to Ophthalmic Technician, medical assistant, advanced manufacturing programs. What does this mean for community colleges and trade schools?
