1	Her comments were very general	10/1/2019 10:22 AM
2	It was a significant moment for everyone to hear that employers are looking for specific abilities related to the job (knowledge of software or processes or such), but that they are also very focused on those who can think creatively and critically and abstractly. A reminder to us all of the importance of the Liberal Studies in ALL of our programs.	9/24/2019 10:22 AM
3	I know she is well-regarded, but the presentation seemed to be composed largely of personal anecdotes and decontextualized data, and mostly restated current and historical talking points from academic leaders without questioning the core assumptions of those talking points.	9/23/2019 1:09 PM
4	Actually I would say somewhat satisfied...she really didn't convey information that I didn't know, but I can imagine there were those in the audience who found the information useful. She also didn't know the topic well enough to answer audience questions that meant her answers would have to generally be contextualized to an institution like CCP.	9/23/2019 7:58 AM
5	Leah is a very dynamic speaker and made the content very engaging, accessible and positive.	9/23/2019 7:42 AM
6	Excellent	9/23/2019 7:37 AM
7	I think her keynote presentation was very timely and thought provoking as we have entered a new period in the US workforce where students will need to have developed and gained a certain level of skills that will help them be able to keep in lock step with the technology, education, health, financial and social service sectors.	9/17/2019 8:30 AM

1	would appreciate more skills based training for staff (adobe/canva/photo editing/social media best practices + platforms) ect. and faculty to build skills.	9/23/2019 7:42 AM
2	When I think of development I think of workshops that may involve topics or books like Now, Discover Your Strengths, Dare to Lead, 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. What we often is a waste of time.	9/17/2019 12:50 PM
3	I think that the topics were very diverse and offered staff and faculty good choices where we would be able to take away and apply some of the gained knowledge.	9/17/2019 8:30 AM
4	A lot of great topics covered. Faculty attendance slim to none in the presentations that I saw other than the open forum. If faculty like these large scale discussions, maybe we can do one each morning?	9/17/2019 7:28 AM
5	There needs to be more topics concerning classified staff.	9/17/2019 2:30 AM

1	Please avoid using single use disposable products. We need to model and demonstrate how to reduce waste of all kinds. Providing or encouraging people to bring their own refillable containers and using beverage towers and compostable cups can help with those efforts.	9/23/2019 7:41 AM
2	Would like to see healthier choices. Too many sweets and carbs!	9/23/2019 7:37 AM
3	Did not partake in the breakfast, I just go to my seat. It is usually too crowded and too hard to balance when seated.	9/19/2019 4:06 AM
4	Arrived too late to take advantage of it, alas!	9/17/2019 12:37 PM
5	Possibly less pastries and bagels and more fruit, cereal or even eggs or little frittatas. Too many carbs that weigh down the metabolism that early in the morning when you are trying to retain information (just an opinion).	9/17/2019 8:30 AM
6	The food is subpar. This is a Canteen issue - the standard bagels and muffins are not good, usually stale, always the same. More fruit and healthy options.	9/17/2019 7:28 AM
7	need more fruit, less carbs	9/16/2019 12:21 PM

Q9 What suggestions, if any, do you have to improve Professional Development Week?

Answered: 26 Skipped: 41

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Make it more engaging and less prescriptive. More faculty presenters	10/1/2019 10:22 AM
2	none	10/1/2019 8:13 AM
3	None	10/1/2019 4:47 AM
4	Professional Development week is held at a very difficult time for folks who are trying to get new students through the door, or help returning students get back through the door. I believe attendance is affected by the timing, especially toward the end of the week. Folks who are asked to present are divided between preparing for the presentation and working with students who are trying to get themselves together for the Fall semester.	9/30/2019 8:34 AM
5	There were some workshop scheduling conflicts with a few of the offerings for the week so I was not able to attend the workshops that were of interest to me in my role. Some of the workshops were in competing time slots.	9/30/2019 8:00 AM
6	more sessions	9/30/2019 7:51 AM
7	More meals, cohesive college-wide sessions, interactive sessions, and encouragement to attend sessions from leadership	9/23/2019 1:09 PM
8	None.	9/23/2019 12:15 PM
9	none	9/23/2019 10:31 AM
10	more collaboration between presenters with different positions, the most impactful sessions for me were when professors and admin/staff brought different perspectives on the same issue/ technology	9/23/2019 9:57 AM
11	If the schedule could come out a little earlier, that would be great.	9/23/2019 7:58 AM
12	short Ted talk styles about topics within our holistic work would be cool. Could open to all and hold in the cube or auditorium as well as livestream. It could be great! Also, leadership institute presenting projects from past year could help implement those initiatives/get a wider audience.	9/23/2019 7:42 AM
13	There should be more seminars focused on staff professional development. (i.e. technology, office etiquette, etc.)	9/23/2019 7:41 AM
14	No concerns at this time	9/23/2019 7:37 AM
15	I know we are cutting cost but some fruit would be a healthier option instead of the bagels/muffins etc. Have more topics for classified staff. Don't overbook the schedule, my workshop was a great one for faculty to attend but it was the last session on a wednesday- I had no one in my session but I also understand tht the other workshops did not have anyone in theirs either.	9/23/2019 7:37 AM
16	Revamp the entire Professional Development Week and deal with topics that College staff are struggling with... Communication, Team Work, Customer Service, Etc.	9/17/2019 12:50 PM
17	That it be offered at the END, not beginning, of our semesters--when we'd actually have time to IMPLEMENT some of the great ideas we hear about; by the time our syllabi are finished, we can't make major changes in courses about to start in a mere week.	9/17/2019 12:37 PM
18	I think that there needs to be a signature event each morning of PD week or at least at the beginning and the end. Perhaps instead of having Dr. G do his talk that morning, this should be a main event on day 2, with breakouts for each pillar.	9/17/2019 7:28 AM
19	3 days instead of 5	9/17/2019 5:32 AM
20	Provide more topics concerning classified staff.	9/17/2019 2:30 AM

CCP Fall 2019 Professional Development Week feedback survey

21	Shorten the events into two days: one day for administrative presentations and the other day for departmental presentations and personal preparation. Begin classes on Wednesday before Labor Day and have no classes at all the week of Thanksgiving.	9/16/2019 1:41 PM
22	It was my first PD week and I enjoyed it very much. I was able to network and learned a lot.	9/16/2019 12:50 PM
23	I would like to see more offerings for non-faculty staff (PD for office workers).	9/16/2019 12:25 PM
24	More diversity certificate offerings. Have option for diversity offerings as webinars	9/16/2019 12:21 PM
25	Contract the PD to 3 days plus 2 days for Department and Division Cooperation/Meeting Pay Adjunct to attend necessary training with direct impacts on Student Outcomes	9/16/2019 12:05 PM
26	Excellent job!	9/16/2019 11:50 AM
