Discussion: Proposal for Revision of the Culinary Arts Curriculum

Action Item: M. McGorry presented the revision on behalf of the curriculum coordinator, L. Carroll-Pitts, who was preparing for the President's event in the Cube. M. McGorry explained that the purpose of the curriculum revision was to align the program with the American Culinary Federation (ACF) accreditation requirements. With the revision, the Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management faculty will be able to pursue ACF accreditation for the program. With an accredited Culinary Arts program, the program will become competitive with area culinary institutions that are accredited by the ACF.

D. Janich motioned to accept the curriculum revision with the minor changes suggested; J. Tannenbaum seconded the motion. The Committee unanimously accepted the proposal.
